

Content Creators Course: Neurodiversity & Sexuality

- Do you have lived experience of Neurodivergence?
- Are you part of the LGBTQIA+ community?
- Do you have an interest in sharing your story using social media?

Our latest Content Creators course aims to improve confidence to discuss important topics and develop research and video production skills. The course offers a supportive space for neurodivergent individuals in the LGBTQIA+ community to explore various subjects, participate in 'Speak Up' sessions, and produce videos.
